Death's Victims.

Three invalids were yesterday added to "that innumerable caravan which moves to the silent halls of death."

William Green, of Chicago, had been in our city for three months, seeking our climate as a remedy for consumption. He was stopping at the house of Mr. Shank, and was attended by his sister-in-law. The remains will be returned to Chicago.

William Sowerby, of Chicago, had been at the Hot Springs hotel for some two or three months, having visited this resort on several previous occasions. He was 75 years old, and died of the infirmities of age. His body, also, will be returned to his eastern home.

Mrs. McGregor, also from Chicago, died at the cottage of Mrs. Trimble, at the Springs, being afflicted with consumption and rheumatism.

Barash & Bloch yesterday purchased twenty-four Hereford bulls to put on their ranch on the Las Conchas. They are said to be good and will improve the stock of that section.

NEWSY NOTESGathered from the Highways and Byways.*Death's Victims—Academy Matters
—Arrest for Murder—Gone up for Ninety Days—Other Fagots From the Fields of Fact and Fancy.Important Academy Matters.

On Sunday the management of the Las Vegas academy held their annual meeting but adjourned till yesterday, when their business was completed. Rev. F. A. Noble, Chicago, was elected president; Rev. C. B. Sumner, Las Vegas, vice president; Rev. C. R. Bliss, Chicago, secretary; W. H. Hubbard, Esq., Chicago, treasurer. The executive committee consists of Prof. W. H. Ashley, chairman; J. H. Wise, secretary; Jefferson Reynolds, treasurer. The trustees elected for five years, were W. H. Hubbard, Jefferson Reynolds, and Dr. Tipton. A very important movement was determined upon at this meeting. It was enacted that there should be but two classes of terms—those published in the circulars, and those given in cases of charity. Henceforth there is to be no lumping of prices because of the number attending, no cutting against other institutions, no reduction for any cause but that of charity. The management of the academy has been taken out of the hands of the principal, and placed under the control of the finance committee. No pupil, under any circumstances, will be admitted to the classes till he brings a certificate from the committee that his tuition has been paid in advance for the current term, or a certificate that the pupil has been admitted on the ground of charity. Presenting one or the other of these certificates the child will be admitted and assigned to the several departments to which he is suited. It is to be desired that this determination shall be adhered to implicitly, and that all the other schools of the city will adopt the same procedure. Tuition is not on a living basis in Las Vegas at this time. The writer of this is an old school teacher, and he knows what he is talking about. No teacher can do justice to as many pupils as are necessary at the present prices, to make a living salary. Then add to this the prevalent custom of cutting prices to prevent other schools from getting the children, which is largely indulged in, and the common practice of allowing bills to run to the end of the year, when from 35 to 40 per cent are never collected—put these together, and no first-class teacher can be retained in the town, unless they are aided from abroad. The eastern managers of the academy, the Congregational New West Educational association, have in six years spent $9,500 on the running expenses of this school, beside $8,500 on building and furniture, making a total of $18,000, or an average of $3,000 per year. Then, too, there have been large donations from liberal minded people here and home. This ought not to be. Such a school as the academy should be self-sustaining, and on the plan of the new departure no doubt it soon will become so.

Swift Footed Justice.

The court room of Justice Ulibarri yesterday was a scene of crowded interest. The recent violations of the good order of our city had excited the indignation of all the better class of the people, and there was an intense desire to see the majesty of the law vindicated. To show the approval of Colonel Pritchard's course in his vigorous prosecution of the cases, quite a pleasant ovation was given him Monday night by many of his neighbors. Too much praise cannot be given Deputy Sheriff Clarke, and the young policeman on the east side, while Justice Ulibarri, by the way in which he administers the law, is winning golden opinions from all who have the good of the town at heart. The parties who were charged with the shooting on Saturday night, having been found guilty on Monday, carrying concealed weapons, were given until today to answer the charges of rioting and resisting the officers. Tom Swearingen was tried on two charges of carrying concealed weapons and found guilty in both cases, which gives him six months in jail on failure to pay the fine. Today he will be tried again on charges of using intimidation upon the families of Captain Barney and Charley Wright, for the purpose of obtaining food and lodging. Frank Bethell, the painter, who was arrested for insulting a witness on Monday, pleaded guilty and was fined $35, which is in default of payment, gives him three months in jail. Dan Rhodes, the hackman, was arrested on the charge of perjury, but waived examination and gave bond in the sum of $1,000 for his appearance before the grand jury. Mendenhall and Cooley went upon his bond. It seems evident that the day for ruffianism in Las Vegas has passed away, and from this time onward every one will see that the laws are amply sufficient for all emergencies, and that any officer in the discharge of his duty cannot be molested or resisted with impunity.

Arrest of a Noted Character.

Serapio Romero left yesterday morning at 8 o'clock for Tecolote, having heard that Rafael Baca was there and was making his arrangements to leave. On reaching the place he found Baca just driving away upon a wagon. Romero at once arrested him. This man Baca is charged with having murdered Juan Valdez, April 9th, 1885. Thus for more than a year a warrant has been out for his apprehension, but hitherto he has eluded all attempts at his capture. The murder of Valdez was a most brutal one. He was shot while asleep in his own house. He lived fifteen days, and died charging Baca with having done the deed. There is a charge of murder against the same man in Bernalillo county, and there was one in Colfax which was dismissed for lack of proof—the murder having been committed in the absence of witnesses. The man is a desperate character, whether guilty or not, and our plucky little under sheriff deserves much praise for making the arrest.

"Push Along, Keep Moving."

Isaac Bloch moved yesterday into the house on Main street lately occupied by Oscar McConnell. Mr. Bloch's family are expected to return today from a lengthy visit to the east. S. C. Morey has moved into the house on Eighth street formerly occupied by Mrs. Hume. A. J. Mendenhall moved next was into the house on Grand avenue and later-

Ocean street, formerly occupied by Wm. Gibbs, which Mr. Mendenhall has purchased. Frank M. Horne moves from his residence on Tilden street into the rooms over the store which Mendenhall occupied, and Mr. Burdick, librarian of the reading room, moves back into Mr. Horne's house, in which he was living at the time of Mr. Horne's purchase.

Localities.

Mrs. Lesenbe has reached her home in Avila, Mo., but has been ill ever since leaving Las Vegas.

A new sidewalk was being laid yesterday in front of Dr. North's drug store on Bridge street. Improvement goes steadily on.

Ponder & Horne are laying pipes for the waterworks company on Tenth street, south of Tilden. They are working a good large gang of men, and will soon be ready to begin in the northern part of the city.

Mr. Cooley says that the calf crop of the present spring is the largest he ever saw in his life. It looks actually as though the steers had dropped calves too. He saw but one dead calf on his recent trip to and from the ranch.

Yesterday Robert D. Dunlop and H. T. Vail purchased lot 6 in block 13 in the Lopez addition through the agency of A. A. & J. H. Wise; consideration $800 cash. Adolph S. Fiersheim was the grantor.

A few days ago some thief forced an entrance into the stable of Mr. Felix Martinez, who lives on Blanchard street, and stole a saddle and three bridles. The saddle cost $60. The party is suspected and had better return the articles.

John Dobson, of Anulville, Mo., and Thomas Turner, of Wausau, Ohio, have in the stock yards in the city two car loads of high grade Galloway and Hereford bulls, which they offer for sale or will exchange part of them for steers. They invite cattlemen to inspect them.

Our city is full of strangers inquiring for houses, and the houses are not to be had. Despite the number built last fall and this spring, there are but the smallest number of any way comfortable houses at present vacant. If one thinks Las Vegas on a decline in point of population, let him try to rent a house.

Jaffa, Prager & Co., who are well known in this city, will shortly put in a large stock of goods at Roswell, Lincoln county. They will occupy a large building which Messrs. Barrett & Gial are at present building. Jaffa & Co. have purchased the store of Roth & Co., which was located on the Chisum ranch near Roswell, and will remove the stock to their new store.

Joe Burger & Co., who have been merchandising in the country, will open in a few days in the corner store room of the old Wesche property on the west side of the Plaza. The building is now owned by Judge O'Brian, and was recently occupied by Boffa's fruit emporium. The premises were receiving a thorough overhauling and cleaning yesterday.

Mr. Kibberg and Captain La Rue were yesterday taking an inventory of the property in the Plaza hotel preparatory to the surrender of it into the hands of the board of management. It is understood that Mr. Martin, brother-in-law of Mr. Sampson, has made an offer to purchase the entire property, real and personal, from the board of directors, and that his proposition will come before them today for action.

At the opera house on Friday evening a farewell party will be tendered Miss Mary Dold by her many friends in the city. This party is given in view of the fact that Miss Dold leaves Las Vegas, the place of her nativity, for a year's tour in Europe, and to visit relatives in Germany. Miss Dold's departure upon so exalted a trip is greatly regretted by a large and devoted circle of friends, and all will join in the wish that her visit may be in every respect a pleasant one.
